Disciplinary Action

The Board of Directors of Eastside Eagles Football Club shall have the power to impose any disciplinary action(s) it deems necessary and appropriate for those who fail to abide by the Eastside Eagles Football Club By-laws and Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action can range from a written reprimand to being barred from participation or association with Eastside Eagles Football Club and the ESFL and its members.

The following and any other acts so deemed by the Board of Directors will constitute grounds for disciplinary action:

1. Striking or abusing physically and/or verbally any official, coach, player, cheerleader, spectator, or other(s).
2. Acting in an unsportsmanlike manner.
3. Violating the Eastside Eagles Football Club By-laws and the ESFL By-laws.
4. Violating the Eastside Eagles Football Club Code of Conduct.
5. Ejection (removal) from a game.
6. Using tobacco, alcohol or illegal narcotics at a league game.
7. Acting in a way that is detrimental to themselves, their team, and/or EastSide Eagles Football Club.
8. Any actions on or off the field that result in a legal conviction of a criminal act as determined by a court of law or other actions that are judged by the Board of Directors to be of such a serious nature that they seriously and negatively impact the Eastside Eagles Football Club Program or ESFL Football League, the image in the community and present the potential for liability to the Board Members and/or the Eastside Eagles Football Club Program or ESFL Football League.

Anyone who does not abide by the above Eastside Eagles Football Club Code of Conduct and By-laws or the ESFL By-laws governing football can and will be asked to leave the game or event, and may be barred from attending any other Eastside Eagles Football Club or ESFL sponsored game or event. The President of Eastside Eagles Football Club or Head Football Coach of a Eastside Eagles Football Club team has the power to ask and if necessary, remove anyone whom they deem to be in violation of by the Eastside Eagles Football Club By-laws or Code of Conduct. Upon taking such action, said person must notify the President of Eastside Eagles Football Club and/or the ESFL Football league.

Ejection and Suspension

1. Game Ejections:

- A. Any coach, player, cheerleader, parent, spectator, or anyone else – whether associated or not associated with Eastside Eagles Football Club– who is ejected (removed) from a game or practice is automatically suspended from attending and/or participating in the next scheduled game or practices for a week. This rule is not subject to protest or review. (Removal from a game or practice shall be interpreted to include the playing/practice field and the spectator area.)
- B. A second offense by the same person during the same season and/or during the following season will result in immediate suspension for the remainder of the then current year.
- C. A third offense by the same person will result in immediate lifetime suspension from participating or attending any Eastside Eagles Football Club or ESFL games and/or any activity sponsored by Eastside Eagles Football Club or ESFL.

PLEASE NOTE:

1. While on suspension, the coach, player, cheerleader, parent or other(s) may not attend any practices or games in which any Eastside Eagles Football Club team participates.
2. Those who receive suspensions must take the initiative to contact the Board to apply for reinstatement.
3. The Board of Directors shall reserve the right to impose any penalties or disciplinary actions it deems necessary and appropriate for violations of Eastside Eagles Football Club or ESFL By-laws and/or Code of Conduct.
4. Public Address System: Use of public address systems at all Eastside Eagle Football Club games is restricted to game/event announcements, introductions, identification of players, participating players after plays, scorers and scores and music. Any use of the public address system by the home team to “psych-up” or give their players an advantage is considered unsportsmanlike and therefore prohibited.

Fact Finding Hearing

Prior to any decision by the Board of Directors for disciplinary action for board members, coaches, players, parents or spectators or other(s), a Fact Finding Hearing before a minimum of two thirds of the Board will be held behind closed doors by the Board of Directors, with notice given to all involved, via (1) telephone (2) email, and/or U.S. Mail. Said hearing should take place within a reasonable amount of time of the alleged incident unless two thirds of the board members cannot be present. The board must then schedule the next available date (best efforts) that two thirds of the board will be present.

Hearing Process

1. The President (or Vice President if President is not available) – shall run the hearing.
2. The President (or Vice President if President is not present) shall read the charges brought against the accused.
3. The Board of Directors MAY then hear from both sides and/or witnesses in an orderly manner.
4. The Board of Directors shall then determine whether sufficient facts and/or evidence have been presented to warrant the holding of the hearing on some or all of such charges with the person(s) violating the Code of Conduct.
5. The Board of Directors shall then judge whether or not the preponderance of the evidence presented in a hearing shows the accused to have committed the acts alleged.
6. The Board of Directors (by majority vote) shall then impose any disciplinary action(s) it deems necessary and appropriate, and/or as specified in the By-laws and Code of Conduct, if the accused is judged to have committed such act or acts as brought before the board.

If the accused does not appear at the hearing, the Eastside Eagles Football Club Board of Directors will render their decision and the accused person(s) will be notified of the disciplinary action to be taken via telephone with a follow-up written notice via email or certified U.S. Mail.

Complaints, Allegations, Grievances

Improper conduct should be reported to President or the Head Football Coach, or Cheerleading Director of the Eastside Eagles Football Club within 24 hours of incident. Those who are found guilty of improper conduct will be subject to disciplinary action by the Eastside Eagles Football Club Board of Directors (see above). Complaints, allegations, or grievances should be brought to the immediate attention of the President, and/or a sitting Board Member of the Eastside Eagles Football Club who shall then do the following:

- a. Make note of complaint, allegation or grievance and date and time of incident and date and time of complaint, allegation or grievance.
- b. Notify, within 24 hours of date/time of complaint, allegation or grievance, the President (if not available, then the Vice President) of Eastside Eagles Football Club that a complaint, allegation or grievance has been made.

NOTE: If the Eastside Eagles Football Club Board finds that the President (if not available, then the Vice-President) and/or the Head Football Coach or Cheerleading Coach did not act upon the complaint, allegation or grievance in a timely manner, then the Board of Directors, at its discretion, may impose disciplinary action(s) it deems appropriate.
